"Shack City 2010"

SATURDAY & SUNDAY, NOV. 6-7
Corner of William & Sandusky Streets, Delaware

How does it feel to be homeless?

...and hungry, lonely and no place to sleep? In an effort to bring awareness to the plight of 150,000 homeless Ohioans, Delaware County Habitat for Humanity and its Youth United team present "Shack City 2010" in Downtown Delaware beginning at 7 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 6, and ending Sunday morning, Nov. 7.

You can help create "Shack City"

Students, youth groups and organizations are invited to use cardboard boxes and tape — instead of wood and nails — to build their homes for one night. Raise awareness — and money — for those who live with no roof over their heads. Every dollar donated to "Shack City 2010" goes to build/renovate Habitat for Humanity-Youth United homes in partnership with Delaware County families.

One of every 50 American children — 1.5 million in all — experiences homelessness each year.
